THE GREATEST

MEDICAL DISCOVERY

Of the Age.

Dr KENNEDY, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common pasture weeds, a remedy that cures

EVERY KIND OF HUMOR;

From the worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple.

He has tried it in over 1100 cases, and never failed except in two cases, (both thunder humor) He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its virtue, all within twenty miles of Boston

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face

Two to three bottles will clear the system of biles

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth and stomach

Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of Erysipelas

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers

One bottle will cure scaly eruption of the skin

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst cases of ringworm

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism

Three to four bottles are warranted to cure the salt rheum

Five to eight bottles will cure the worst cases of scrofula

A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the above quantity is taken

Reader, I peddled over a thousand bottles of this in the vicinity of Boston I know the effect of it in every case So sure as water will extinguish fire, so sure will this cure humor I never sold a bottle of it but that sold another; after a trial it always speaks for itself There are two things about this herb that appear to me surprising, first, that it grows in our pastures, in some places quite plentiful and yet its value has never been known until I discovered it in 1846—second, that it should cure all kinds of humor

In order to give some idea of the sudden rise and great popularity of the discovery I will state that in April, 1853, I peddled it, and sold about six bottles per day—in April, 1854, I sold over one thousand bottles per day of it

Some of the wholesale Druggists who have been in business twenty and thirty years, say that nothing in the annals of patent medicines was ever like it There is a universal praise of it from all quarters

In my own practice I always kept it strictly for humors—but since its introduction as a general family medicine, great and wonderful virtues have been found in it that I never suspected

Several cases of epileptic fits—a disease which was always considered incurable, have been cured by a few bottles O, what a mercy if it will prove effectual in all cases of that awful malady—there are but few who have seen more of it than I have

I know of several cases of Dropsy, all of them aged people, cured by it. For the various diseases of the Liver, Sick Headache, Dyspepsia, Asthma Fever and Ague, Pain in the Side, Diseases of the Spine, and particularly in Diseases of the Kidneys, &c, the discovery has done more good than any medicine ever known

No change of diet ever necessary—eat the best you can get, and enough of it

DIRECTIONS FOR USE.—Adults one table spoonful per day—Children over ten years dessert spoonful—Children from five to eight years, tea spoonful As no directions can be applicable to all constitutions, take sufficient to operate on the bowels twice a day

The Principal Office for the State of Maine and the British Provinces is at the Drug and Medicine Establishment of H H HAY, 15 & 17 Market Square Portland, Maine to whom all orders should be addressed Sold by respectable Druggists throughout the United States and British Provinces

PRICE $1.00.

28 WINTER STREET!

VERY, VERY CHEAP!

WAREROOMS,

(Removed from Washington Street.)

Owing to the continual demand all through the past season for their peculiarly easy fitting CORSETS they have been induced to order largely and would now offer the French English and German Corsets at unprecedented low prices, together with all the beautiful varieties of MRS ADAMS' own French made Bodices which are now too well known and appreciated to need comment It being the intention of Mrs A to sell all the Corsets that are to be sold in Boston this spring owing to the prices she would beg that ladies will bear in mind that 28 Winter Street is the only place where Mrs Adams is to be found, it being the impression with some persons that she still has a store, or Corset Warerooms in her old neighborhood, her desire is to guard her customers from such a mistake

Inquire of the Boston or New York Customs who is the most extensive importer of Corsets in the States They will tell you GEO W. ADAMS, of 28 Winter Street— This establishment is conducted on most liberally low price principles and is at all times posted and amply supplied with every style of Bodice Jacket or Corset in vogue One of the partners of this house is in Europe conducting the manufacturing and shipping the goods to this country—these facilities affording the means to sell much less than others in the business together with a determination to keep the lead by disposing of both low and high priced goods at a very fraction of profit It is well known that Mrs. Adams has long been at the head of her profession, having had during thirty years much experience and opportunity for cultivating business talent in the best French and English schools, she also being the first woman to patent ... in America The celebrated ADAMS' PATENT ABDOMINAL SUPPORTER so justly pronounced by Sir Astley Cooper and Sir James Clarke as the cleverest thing of its kind, is her own invention — Those in need of this article will please make personal application as above.

JESUITISM!

THE CATHOLIC LETTERS,

Addressed to a Young Kinsman, about to Join the Church of Rome

BY E HASKETT DERBY, ESQ

In one volume, 12mo ———— Price 75 cents

These Letters covering the whole Catholic question, are without doubt the most able and learned resume of this subject ever given to the world.

The arguments and the conclusions are masterly and irresistible and strange as it may seem for an eminent lawyer to leave Blackstone and Coke and, for a time, bend the whole energies of his mind, with that keen sagacity peculiar to the legal profession, to an exhausting research among the tomes of the Fathers of Theology; still the service which he has rendered to the cause of truth and the fact that his labors resulted in changing the course of a beloved kinsman who would otherwise have joined the Church of Rome will ever be a cause for gratitude

One of the merits of the work is a spirited review of Bunsen Rowson Conybeare Milner and other modern writers, and a well digested argument on the planting of the Church in Britain by St Paul before the Roman Pontificate was founded

Rev Dr Peabody in a note to Mr Derby, after a careful reading of the sheets uses the following language "Your main argument it seems to me is to the point, and overwhelmingly conclusive I hope and do not doubt that it will do much good, while it is honorable to yourself both as a parent and a scholar"

We believe this work is destined to become

A LUCKY MASON

There was once upon a time a poor mason or bricklayer, in Granada, who kept all the Saint's day and holidays, and St. Mondays in the bargain, and yet with all his devotion, he grew poorer and poorer, and could scarcely earn bread for his numerous family One night he was aroused from his first sleep by a knocking at the door He opened it, and beheld before him a tall, meagre, cadaverous looking priest.

'Hark ye, honest friend,' said the stranger, 'I have observed that you are a good Christian and one to be trusted, will you undertake a job this very night?'

'With all my heart, Senor Padre, on condition that I am paid accordingly.'

'That you shall be, but you must suffer yourself to be blindfolded'

To this the mason made no objection, so, being hoodwinked, he was led by the priest through various lanes and winding passages, until they stopped before the portal of a house The priest then applied a key, turned a creaking lock, and opened what sounded like a ponderous door They entered, the door was closed and bolted, and the mason was conducted through an echoing corridor, and a spacious hall, to the interior of the building Here the bandage was removed from his eyes, and he found himself in a patio or court, dimly lighted by a single lamp. In the centre was the dry basin of an old Moorish fountain under which the priest requested him to form a small vault, bricks and mortar being at hand for the purpose.— He accordingly worked all night but without finishing the job. Just before day break the priest put a piece of gold into his hand, and having again blindfolded him, conducted him back to his dwelling

'Are you willing, said he, 'to return and complete your work?'

'Gladly, Senor Padre—provided I am so well paid'

'Well then, to-morrow at midnight I will call again.'

He did so—and the vault was completed.

'Now,' said the priest, 'you must help me to bring forth these bodies that are to be buried in this vault.'

The mason's hair rose on his head at these words; he followed the priest with trembling steps into a retired chamber of the mansion, expecting to behold some ghastly spectacle of death, but was relieved on perceiving three or four portly jars in one corner They were evidently full of money, and it was with great labor that he and the priest carried them forth and consigned them to their tomb The vault was then closed the pavement replaced, and all traces of the work obliterated The mason was again hoodwinked and led forth by a route different from that by which he had come After they had wandered for a long time through a perplexed maze of lanes and alleys, they halted The priest then put two pieces of gold into his hand— 'Wait here,' said he, 'until you hear the cathedral bell toll for matins If you presume to uncover your eyes before that time, evil will befall you,' so saying he departed

The mason waited faithfully amusing himself by weighing the gold pieces in his hand, and clanking them against each other The moment the cathedral bell rung its matin peal, he uncovered his eyes and found himself on the banks of Xenil, from where he made the best of his way home, and revelled with his family for a whole fortnight on the profit of his two night's work, after which he was poor as ever.

He continued to work a little and pray a good deal, and kept Saint's day and holidays, from year to year, while his family grew up as gaunt and rapid as a crew of gypsies As he was seated one evening at the door of his hotel, he was accosted by a rich old curmudgeon, who was noted for owning many houses and being a griping landlord The man of money eyed him for a moment from beneath a pair of anxious shagged eye brows

"I am told, friend, that you are very poor"

"There is no denying the fact, Senor—it speaks for itself."

"I presume that you will be glad of a job and work cheap"

"As cheap, my master, as any mason in Granada."

"That's what I want. I have an old house fallen into decay, that cost me more money than it is worth to keep it in repair, for no one will live in it, so I must contrive to patch it up at as small expense as possible."

The mason was accordingly conducted to a large deserted house that seemed going to ruin. Passing through several empty halls and chambers, he entered an inner court, where his eye was caught by an old Moorish Fountain, He paused for a moment, for a dreaming recollection to the place very distinctly came over him.

"Pray" said he, "who occupied this house formerly?"

"A pest upon him!" cried the landlord, "it was an old miserly priest, who cared for nobody but himself He was said to be immensely rich, and, having no relations, it was thought he would leave his treasures to the church. He died suddenly and the priests and friars thronged to take possession of his wealth, but nothing could they find but a few ducats in a leathern purse The worst luck has fallen to me, for since his death, the old fellow continues to occupy my house without paying rent, and there's no taking the law of a dead man The people pretend to hear the clinking of gold all night in the chamber where the old priest slept, as if he were counting over his money, and sometimes a groaning and moaning about the court.— Whether true or false, these stories brought a bad name on my house, and not a tenant will remain in it."

"Enough," said the mason sturdily, "let me live in your house, rent free until some better tenant presents himself, and I will put it in repair, and quiet the troubled spirit that disturb it. I am a good christian and a poor man, and am not to be daunted by the devil himself, even though he should come in the shape of a big bag of money"

The offer of the honest mason was gladly accepted, he moved with his family into the house and fulfilled all his engagements. By little and little he restored it to its former state; the clinking of gold was no more heard at night in the chambers of the defunct priest, but began to be heard by day in the pockets of the living mason. In a word, he increased rapidly in wealth, to the admiration of all his neighbors, and became one of the richest men in Granada; he gave a large sum to the church, by way, no doubt, of satisfying his conscience, and never revealed the secret of the vault until on his death-bed to his son and heir.

The Cincinnati Nominee.

The nomination of Mr. Buchanan, by the Cincinnati Convention, is a result which we have expected for some time past It has been brought about by a perception on the part of the leaders of the democratic party that the acts of that party have justly alienated from it vast numbers of the people of the North who love liberty and have become alarmed at the threatened prevalence of slavery — that supposing every slave State could be carried for the democratic candidate (which they cannot be) it would still be necessary to secure the votes of one or two of the larger Northern States, to carry the election There was certainly no chance of doing this with any other candidate than Buchanan, and but a slight chance with him, as he freely endorses the infamous repeal of the Missouri Compromise, which has enslaved Kansas to-day, and been the moving cause of all the lawless violence, and outrage of the past two years There was the single hope, however, that State pride would induce the people of Pennsylvania to give Mr Buchanan their electoral vote and that enough other northern votes might then be obtained to secure the victory and give the leaders another four years enjoyment of the spoils It was a desperate cast, but the only one which could be made We do not believe that Mr Buchanan can carry even his own State at the North The people have become too thoroughly aroused by the wicked sacrifice of Kansas to the slave power, to support any candidate of that party which has deliberately made the sacrifice, and which still maintains the odious measures by which the sacrifice was both initiated and consummated. Nor is Mr Buchanan's personal popularity such as to give him the sufficient strength. He is essentially a two sided man. On the great political question of former days, the principle of protection which was important to Pennsylvanian interests above all others, while professing to maintain her cause he yet gave in his adhesion and his support to the party and the administration which overthrew the protective tariff of 1842, and upon the great practical question of the present day, that of making freedom instead of slavery the ruling national principle of our government, he is found directly in opposition to the doctrines which he once maintained — He fully concedes to the demands of the slave power that Congress shall not undertake to rule the National Territories so far as to exclude slavery therefrom, and will concede to any further demands which southern men may make He stands upon a platform approved by the South, at a time when the slavery question has become the only practical political question to be decided, and he depends entirely upon the unanimous support of the slaveholding States for any chance of an election He is therefore bound to satisfy the South, and he cannot, in the present state of things, be an acceptable candidate to any friend of freedom, in the great contest now going on

No man who objects to Franklin Pierce, on the score of his acts against freedom in Kansas can consistently vote for James Buchanan, for Mr Buchanan has unreservedly endorsed the great measure of infamy perpetrated by Pierce and Douglas against freedom in all that vast Territory, the direct result of which has been to bring Kansas at this day under the dominion of slaveholding ruffians, and to establish slavery by border ruffian law within her borders, once solemnly declared to be forever free from its curse Pierce was in a position to perform the act demanded by the slavery propagandists, and it was done Buchanan sees the wrong and sustains it, with all its inevitable consequences He sustains it, and the democratic party as represented by its leaders, also sustains it We therefore say that no man who feels for the wrongs of Kansas, and who despises Frank Pierce, can consistently support James Buchanan!

Let the people remember that the contest is one for the preservation of freedom against the encroachments of slavery, and that the next election is the turning point If the democracy prevails, the South will conquer, and take courage for new advances No man can be neutral in the contest If not for freedom, and in a practical manner too, he is against it — Every man who votes with and for the democratic party votes to sustain the Nebraska outrage.

☞ The Adrian (Mich.) Expositor states that a Deputy U S Marshal is in that city or vicinity, for the purpose of arresting Mr. Lowrey whose only offense is his having acted as Secretary for Gov Reeder Mr L was not arrested He had left for New England before the Marshal received his orders It would seem by this that none who have committed the crime of being on the side of the people of Kansas are safe from the emissaries of the administration, even in a sovereign State. Who knows but U S Marshal Freeman holds warrants for the arrest of Messrs Branscomb, Nute and other Kansas men now in the free States! Can't the doug-faces be called upon to arrest them under the Fugitive Slave Law.

We are indebted to Hodgman, Carr & Co's. Express for late Boston papers.

The Attack on Mr. Beall.— Cincinnati June 5th The testimony in regard to the stabbing of Mr. Beell, shows that he was assaulted by Democrats, who heard him call himself an American.

Resolutions of the Cincinnati Convention.

It will be seen by the resolutions upon slavery given below, that the democratic party endorses fully the repeal of the Missouri Compromise and the consequent delivery of Kansas over to the dominion of slavery,—and distinctly denies the power of Congress to prohibit slavery in the Territories This is the whole question now at issue; and upon its decision by the people depends the question whether slavery shall be unlimited in this Union The talk about equality of rights, sectionalism, &c., is mere verbiage to cover up the subserviency with which the party abandons all national territory to the curse of slavery.

The Baltimore platform of 1852 was reaffirmed, and the following added:

And whereas, Since the foregoing declaration was uniformly adopted by our predecessors in National Convention, an adverse political and religious test has been secretly organized by a party claiming to be exclusively Americans, and it is proper that the American Democracy should clearly define its relations thereto, therefore,

Resolved, That the foundation of this Union of States having been laid in its prosperity, expansion and pre-eminent example in Free Government, built upon entire freedom in matters of religious concern, and no respect of persons in regard to rank or place of birth, no party can justly be deemed national, constitutional, or in accordance with American principles, which bases its exclusive organization upon religious opinions and accidental birth place.

That we reiterate with renewed energy of purpose the well-considered declarations of former Conventions upon the sectional issue of Domestic Slavery, and concerning the reserved rights of the States, and that we may more distinctly meet the issue on which a sectional party, subsisting exclusively on Slavery agitation now relies to test the fidelity of the people, North and South, to the Constitution and the Union—

Resolved, That claiming fellowship with and desiring the co-operation of all who regard the preservation of the Union, under the Constitution, as the paramount issue, and repudiating all sectional parties and platforms concerning domestic Slavery, which seek to embroil the States and incite to treason and armed resistance to law in the Territories, and whose avowed purposes, if consummated, must end in civil war and disunion, the American Democracy recognize and adopt the principles contained in the organic laws establishing the Territories of Kansas and Nebraska, as embodying the only sound and safe solution of the Slavery question upon which the great national idea of the people of this whole country can repose in its determined conservatism of the Union, non interference by Congress with Slavery in States and Territories, that this was the basis of the compromises of 1850, confirmed by both the Democratic and Whig parties in National Convention, ratified by the people in the election of 1852, and rightly applied to the organization of Territories and the admission of new States, with or without domestic slavery, as they may elect, the equal rights of all the States will be preserved intact, the original compacts of the Constitution maintained inviolate, and the perpetuation and expansion of this Union, insured to its utmost capacity of embracing in peace and harmony, every future American State that may be constituted or annexed with a Republican form of government

Resolved, That we recognize the right of the people of all the Territories, including Kansas and Nebraska, acting through the fairly expressed will of the majority of actual residents, and whenever the number of their inhabitants justifies it, to form a Constitution, with or without domestic Slavery, and be admitted into the Union upon terms of perfect equality with the other States

Resolved, Finally, that the condition of popular institution in the Old World, and the dangerous tendencies to sectional agitation combined with the attempt to enforce civil and religious disabilities against the rights of acquiring and enjoying citizenship in our own land, a high and sacred duty has devolved with increased responsibility upon the Democratic party of this country as the party of the Union, to uphold and maintain the rights of every State, and thereby the Union of the States, and to sustain the advance among us of constitutional liberty, by continuing to resist all monopolies and exclusive legislation for the benefit of the few at the expense of the many, and by vigilant and constant adherance to those principles and compromises of the Constitution, which are broad and strong enough to embrace and uphold the Union as it was and the Union as it shall be, in the full expansion of the energies and capacity of this great and progressive people

In an encounter at Helena, Ark, Mr Hindman, one of the editors of the State Rights Democrat, was shot in the right breast, the ball lodging in the shoulder blade, Mr Claiborne was shot in the left side, and Dr Merritt was shot through the bowels and in the back Hindman's condition was favorable, though precarious, Merritt and Claiborne are considered mortally wounded. The affray arose from a newspaper article

The Ellsworth American appears in new and beautiful dress, and new heading—and makes a very handsome appearance. The paper takes an open and manly stand for freedom in the political contests of the day, and is ably conducted. It is also a good local paper.

Military —At a meeting of the Officers of the 1st Regiment, 1st Brigade, 9th Division, Brigadier General John L. Hodsdon presiding, Lieut Col Israel B Norcross, of Bangor, was elected Colonel, Major J D Higgins, of Brewer Lt. Colonel and Captain Frank Pierce, of Bucksport, Major

A packet ship being announced to sail from Baltimore and Savannah, under the auspices of the American Colonization Society, five hundred and eighty-nine applicants for passage have appeared.

The French Empress entered on her thirtieth year on the fifth instant She was born on the anniversary of the death of Napoleon the First.

The Voice of a New York Democrat — David Dudley Field, in a letter to the Albany Argus, which that paper has the magnanimity to print, says;—

"Although I have not hitherto acted with the Republican party, my sympathies are of course with the friends of Freedom, wherever they may be found. I despise equally the fraud which uses the name of Democracy to cheat men of their rights, the cowardice which retracts this year what it professed and advocated the last, and the falsehood which affects to teach the right of the people of the Territories to govern themselves, while it imposes on them Federal Governors and Judges, indicts them for treason against the Union because they make a constitution and laws which they prefer, and collects forces from neighboring States and the Federal army to compel them to submission."

Kansas Items.

The Chicago Democratic Press, has received some interesting statements from Col. Eldridge, the proprietor of the Lawrence Hotel. He says that every house in the place but one was sacked, and every thing was seized that could be carried away; even ladies' dresses were added to the miscellaneous plunder

In regard to Mr. Oliver, of the Kansas Commission, the Press gives the following item:

"Mr Hinman, formerly of La Salle county in this State, went to Leavenworth shortly after the sacking of Lawrence, where the committee of Investigation was in session, and Mr Oliver desired to be informed of everything that had occurred, but mysteriously whispered to him that 'there were assassins about,' and took him between two buildings, out of the way of observation, for the conference. Mr. Hinman, accordingly, from personal observation, gave a full history of everything as it happened. Mr Oliver seemed to be greatly distressed at the recital—tears rolling down his cheeks, and when Mr. Hinman had finished, he exclaimed, 'My God! our cause is ruined!' We trust the gentleman prophesied the truth. We are informed that he regrets having consented to serve on the committee, and that he would not have done so if he had been fully aware how badly the 'cause' would be made to appear by the evidence of the Border Ruffians themselves"

The Press adds

"We are glad to be assured that the Free State men, nothing daunted by past disasters or apprehensions of future troubles, are determined to stand their ground, and all the more firmly for the war that has been waged upon them. A few persons who lately arrived in the Territory in the midst of the confusion, and have made no claim, nor established themselves in any way, are leaving, but all the leading men who have left intend soon to go back to aid their brethren in defending their invaded rights"

The New York Tribune has the following dispatch from Cincinnati

"Lieut. Gov Roberts and Gen Pomeroy of Kansas are here I have seen several persons who left Kansas last week A general quiet prevailed, though the reign of terror continued A party of Buford's Southern Company were ordered to Leavenworth, and were arresting or driving out leading Free State citizens Mr Phillips, correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune, to escape their vengeance, had gone to the Fort

The reported cold blooded murder of eight pro slavery men at Ossawatamie is altogether a different affair. Five pro slavery men got a Free State man, tied a rope around his neck, and were about to swing him off, when a party of his friends came up and shot his persecutors dead

A hundred armed men left Westport, last Saturday, to scour Southern Kansas, and to make the country, as they said, 'too hot for the Free State people.' Guerilla parties were scouring the Territory, and collisions were occasionally occurring, but the general disposition of the Free people is to remain quiet and pursue their farming Settlers were coming into the Territory in considerable numbers from Indiana and Illinois.

The Congressional Commission closed last week

A Topeka correspondent of the Missouri Democrat, gives the following account of the first shot at the Free State Hotel

"The first cannon was poised by David Atchison—his object the front of the hotel fifty feet square, distance two hundred yards He acted as gunner, and directed the elevation of the gun in a manner rather laughable—he leans over, he squints along the gun, and says 'Boys, put it up lower, down a little higher, all ready, blaze away!'—and whiz went the ball—not through the hotel, however, but over the corner, and down into the ravine An Ex-Vice President of the United States acting as head gunner to a mob which came to Lawrence to demolish a hotel and two printing presses!"

The Brooks Outrage. The Richmond Examiner concludes a long and coarse article lauding Brooks and vilifying Mr Sumner, as follows

"The most ludicrous part of this farce of 'Sumner's Martyrdom,' remains to be told. The shirt which this young man wore when he was chastised by Mr Brooks, for heaping abuse upon a venerable relative and vilifying a noble State, has been conveyed by careful hands to Boston. Whether another indignation meeting is to be called at Faneuil Hall, and the scene of Mark Anthony's declamation over the bloody toga of Cæsar is to be exemplified, is yet to be seen — Perhaps in the Presidential canvass the shirt is to play as conspicuous a part as did the breeches of Mahomet Sumner's shirt is to be the banner of the Black Republicans In that event, the standard of the opposing party should be a gutta percha cane, with this motto—'In hoc signo vinces'"

A correspondent of The New York Courier and Enquirer, writing from the Cincinnati Democratic Convention on the [illegible]th, says

Thomas D Arcy McGee, editor of the Celt, has written a letter to the President of the Convention, demanding the expulsion of the murderer, Herbert of California

Mr Herbert is one of the delegates, and no notice has been taken of McGee's letter. The Southern opposition to the war with England and filibuster resolution exceed in no case forty votes, but rallied successfully, and voted down a moderate resolution in favor of the Pacific railroad This created considerable feeling The States with Presidential candidates squirmed under this test but Pennsylvania voted with the South.

Anti-Administration Convention in New Jersey —New York, June 5. An immense meeting took place yesterday in Trenton, at Temperance Hall, composed of Whigs, Know-Nothings, Republicans, and Free-Soilers, for the purpose of denouncing and opposing the the present administration, and for the nomination of a candidate for Governor The proceedings were of a most enthusiastic nature. Speeches were made denunciatory of the Kansas and Sumner outrages, and deprecatory of a war with England, and strong resolutions were adopted, after which Dr. William A Newell, of Monmouth, was nominated candidate for Governor by acclamation

It is probable that Mr. Brooks, acting upon the sentiment which has so long prevailed among a certain class in South Carolina, would not be unwilling to do what he can towards a dissolution of the Union."—New York Journal of Commerce, (Dem)

And yet this Brooks is an honored and trusted member of the Cincinnati Convention—sustained in his violence by Democratic members—is the guest of Massachusetts officeholders, who feel dreadfully at the prospect of a dissolution! How easily these gnat-straining gentlemen gulp down a camel!—Atlas.

Accidental Death —At about nine o'clock, last Saturday night, a room in the house of Mr. Edward Robinson, at Alna, which was occupied by his mother, a lady aged about 70 years, was discovered to be filled with smoke and flames. Through great exertion the fire was extinguished Mrs Robinson lingered in an unconscious state only till Sunday morning — It is supposed she must have had a fit—Gardiner Journal.

Corn and Ruta Baga together.—Reading in the Cultivator, "Reasons for Growing Ruta Bagas," induces me to state the manner that ruta bagas are cultivated in this region of country. We plant them with our corn. First draw out your manure in the spring on sward land, spread and plough under—plough deep, and give the lands a thorough harrowing Mark with a marker, three feet apart, (or some more than that)—take two parts wood ashes, one part plaster, and put your seed into it, give it a thorough mixing up with a shovel, drop a good handful in the hill, and plant your corn The turnips will come up thrifty. The corn can be hoed nearly as quick the first time, some care must be taken not to cover or to cut up the turnips. The next hoeing or hilling, they are out of the way, and should be reduced down to one turnip in the hill. If your corn fails, you are sure of a turnip crop. I have tried it successfully One turnip in the hill does not injure the corn.

Hundreds of bushels can be raised in this way, paying all expenses of labor on the corn Every farmer who plants from five to ten acres of corn, can raise from five hundred to one thousand bushels of turnips in this manner, which is almost a clear gain Cut up the corn as soon as it is fit, five rows together, set it around a hill, and bind with two bands. Then take a common hoe and chop off the turnip tops, then haul the turnips partially out of the ground with the side of the hoe, cut off the tap root, and give them a toss into rows, which clears them from the dirt You can then pass along with your cart and load them for the cellar.—Country Gentleman.

An Old Un Yesterday we saw, in this city, a Roman silver coin, weighing about as much as two of our ten cent pieces will weigh, and of the diameter of the 12 1 2 cent piece It was coined as early as A D. 30! and its execution is not inferior to many of the silver coins of this era On one side it bears the inscription "Tiberius Imperator," around a raised bust of the Emperor Tiberius, on the throne when it was coined, a very marked and distinct countenance, indeed. On the other side, it bears a raised figure of a female (seated) resting one hand on a lance standing on the ground, and bearing a branch in the other hand It was sent to a friend in Washington by Buckingham Smith, Esq, the Secretary of the Legation of the United States in Madrid, who is himself a distinguished numismatologist and literary antiquarian — Washington Star.

That Baby —Little Napoleon is doing well, and is taken out by nurse to walk on the Tuileries terrace overlooking the river. When his little Imperial Highness passes or rather is borne past any soldier or body of soldiers, they are bound to pay him the same military honors that they do to the Emperor himself. He kicks up his legs, they present arms He has been entered on the books of the first company of grenadies of the Imperial Guard as enfant de troupe, which for a young gentleman who already wears the military medal, is not too speedy advancement

Hung in Effigy —Concord, N H, June 5. —This morning the effigies of Franklin Pierce and Preston S Brooks are hanging in front of the State House, eighty feet from the ground, on the Pierce and King liberty pole, erected in 1852. There is an effigy also of Col George, in another part of the city, bearing an inscription upon his front of "the glorious and Godlike administration of Franklin Pierce"

Fearful Leap — A pickpocket who was caught and locked up in the saloon on the cars of the New York Central Railroad on Monday, sprang out of the window of the saloon, head first, while the cars were running at the rate of thirty miles an hour, and ran for the woods.— He was overtaken and found to be badly cut in the face, and one of his legs was injured

My little niece Katie, a three year old, is so very funny sometimes that I have thought her entitled to a nook in your "Children's Corner." Her grandmother asked her the other day, among other questions from the Catechism, Who gave her her daily bread? She immediately replied "Dod, gram-ma; but Uncle Peter puts the butter on!" —Knickerbocker

The Present and the Future —It is strange that the experience of so many ages should not make us judge more solidly of the present and of the future, so as to take proper measures in the one for the other We dost upon this world as if it were never to have an end, and we neglect the next, as if it were never to have a beginning —Fenelon.

Governor Metcalf Re-elected —Concord, N H, June 5 —The Legislature to day, in joint convention, elected Ralph Metcalf Governor by the following vote

FALL RIVER, Feb 5

This is to certify that I have been troubled for the last six years with humors, which broke out on my head, breast, and limbs, forming a complete sore, attended with severe pain, equal to biles, and have made use of many different medicines during the time, receiving no benefit from any, but for the last six months have been growing worse and had given up all hopes of ever being any better, but fortunately about one month ago I was induced to make a trial of the Allied Ointment, which applied to the parts affected made a smarting sensation while drawing the humor out which made it seem worse for a few days, but in the short space of three weeks, by making a continued application according to directions, I am entirely free from all sores, it having effected a real cure, and I would most cordially recommend it to the afflicted, as being a safe and speedy medicine.

The Cincinnati Convention Nominations.

BELLOWS FALLS, VT., June 7.

The nomination of Buchanan and Breckenridge was received here with much enthusiasm by the Democracy, who to-day fired a National salute in honor of the event.

BOSTON, 7th.

The Cincinnati nominations were ratified with great display by the proprietors of the Times newspaper this evening, including speeches, illumination of building, fireworks, music, &c.—a large crowd cheered the demonstration

WASHINGTON, 7th

The Democrats held a large meeting here to-night to ratify the nomination of Buchanan and Breckenridge The Hon Mr Smith, of Tennessee presided Mr Cass was introduced to the meeting and received with thunders of applause He said a voice had reached them from the far West, borne by that mysterious agent which defies both time and space, announcing that the Convention has named to the party the name of a statesman for the Chief Magistracy of the United States, who will unite the hopes and exertions of the whole union — That man is James Buchanan He eulogized him for his public experience, his private worth and his strict adherence to Democratic principles, and said—Let every true Democrat buckle on his armor—not the armor of Sharpe's rifles, but the armor of truth, reason and persuasion—and go forth to conquer He spoke approvingly of Mr Breckenridge, the nominee for the Vice Presidency, saying he would be a faithful co-laborer with Buchanan He wished success to them both but, above all, success to this glorious Union

Pierce and Douglas Approve the Nominations.

Mr Douglas was then introduced, and was rapturously received. He endorsed to their fullest extent the remarks of Mr. Cass, and eulogized he patriotism and firmness of the President on the leading issue of the day, and claims for him a bright page in his country's history when the passions of the day shall have subsided He rejoiced too that his own course on the Nebraska Kansas question had been endorsed by the noble resolves of the Convention. He exhorted his hearers also to prepare for the combat with such candidates we must triumph. It I have a friend in the Union, he said in conclusion who loves me, let him put his shoulder to the wheel, and do everything in his power to win the fight

When the music and wild huzza's had ceased, those who composed the meeting formed in procession and proceeded to serenade the President, who it was understood would make a speech in approval of the proceedings of the Convention

Livery Stable, &c., Destroyed by Fire.

HARTFORD, CON, 7th

A fire broke out at 1 o clock P M to day in e extensive Livery Stable of Clapp & Sharp, on Mulberry street, in the rear of the City Hotel. The building is of stone and extends through to Gold street. About 60 tons of hay and some carriages, sleighs, &c were destroyed All the horses were saved The loss is estimated at about $9 000, one third insured

(From the State of Maine.)

Enough is known, however, to satisfy any one that the three leading candidates before the Cincinnati Convention stood upon the same political platform and that the question became narrowed down to a choice of men

An approval of the repeal of the Missouri Compromise and a zealous advocacy of the pe motives of, the South on the question of slavery extension, were the principal questions that employed the attention of the Convention

The Bangor Journal's announcement of the nomination was an article laudatory of Mr Buchanan, and making no allusion whatever to the pro-slavery platform upon which he was nominated, and upon which he stands

The Journal was started as an intense Straight Whig organ, and pretended to be, if possible, more strongly in favor of prohibiting slavery in the Territories than the Republican papers were That was some two years ago We now have it receiving with great complacency and personal praise, a renegade Federalist, who is nominated for President by the sham-Democracy, upon a platform which denies even the right of Congress to prohibit slavery in the Territories

This Mr Buchanan, whom the Journal laudated, was also one of the principal and most bitter calumniators of HENRY CLAY in the outrageous charges of "bribery and corruption" m de against him on the occasion of the election of John Quincy Adams. Where is this Straight Whig paper going ?

The Free-Will Baptist Society have purchased the lot of land on the West side of Essex street, just above State street, 100 feet front by 110 back, for $17,00 It is the intention of the Society to erect a Meeting house the present season

DROWNED On Wednesday afternoon, about five o'clock, while bathing in Charles River, near the gas works, a colored boy, eighteen years old, belonging in Bangor, Me, and employed on board a Bangor schooner, on the way up the river, was drowned. He was in company with another lad, and both excellent swimmers, and the first intimation his companion had of any difficulty was a scream of distress, and, before the boy could be reached he sunk to rise no more It is supposed he had an attack of the cramp Every effort was made during the evening and the following morning to recover the body, but without success

Messrs John I Brown & Son: Gentlemen—A knowledge of the manner in which the various articles of the Materia Medica were combined by you to form the Bronchial Troches, led me three or four years since to adopt their use. The results have been such as to induce me to continue the practice, believing them of great benefit in many affections of the Bronchial organs, Asthma, Coughs, &c Yours, etc. A W F LANE, M D

[Copy of a Letter.]

Baltimore, Jan. 8, 1856.

Messrs. C. & J. Marshall—Gentlemen: At the request of your Agent in Baltimore, in regard to our opinion and experience of your copper-coated spikes, we, without hesitation, say we believe them the best substitute for copper yet introduced, and better fastening for ships, inasmuch as you have the strength of iron with the preservative qualities of copper.

We have used some of your Spikes in old vessels as a substitute for copper, and have had occasion to draw them out a year afterwards, and found them with the coating as firm as when they were driven, and with no appearance of oxidation.

Very respectfully yours,
(Signed) John D. Fardy & Bro.

Singer's Sewing Machines.

ALL PERSONS who desire to obtain full and reliable information respecting SINGER'S SEWING MACHINES—their price, capabilities, advantages, sizes, improvements, method of working, means of procuring them, and all other particulars—can do so by applying at our office,

No. 323 Broadway, New York,

by letter or in person, for

I. M. SINGER & CO'S GAZETTE.

This paper is devoted entirely to the Sewing Machine interest. Copies will be supplied gratis to all interested.

N. B.—The unparalleled success of our Sewing Machines has induced several fraudulent imitations of them, besides numerous infringements of our patents—of which we own sixteen. Suits for the infringement of our patents have recently been decided in our favor in the U. S. Circuit Courts in New York and New Jersey. In these suits the great principle of Holding down the Fabric to be Sewed to the Surface of the Machine, by a yielding pressure, which is used in all Sewing Machines—has been fully established. The Wheeler & Wilson, and the Grover & Baker Sewing Machines, as we allege each infringe three distinct patents owned by us. We have suits against them in several of the U. S. Courts, which will soon be tried. We hereby caution the public not to buy any infringing Machines, as they can be compelled by law to stop using them, and to pay costs and damages.

☞ Local Agents wanted to make sales of our improved sewing machines. To persons properly qualified for the business, a rare opportunity for profitable and pleasant employment is offered.

New and improved machines exchanged on liberal terms for old machines of every kind.

HELMBOLD'S GENUINE PREPARATIONS

HELMBOLD'S
HIGHLY CONCENTRATED

Compound Fluid Extract Buchu.

IS A CERTAIN, SAFE, AND EFFECTUAL REMEDY

For Diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys, Gravel, Dropsy, Weakness, Secret Diseases, Obstructions, Female Complaints, and all Diseases of the Sexual Organs, whether in

MALE OR FEMALE,

from whatever cause they may have originated, and

No Matter of How Long Standing.

This popular and specific remedy is now offered to the afflicted, and guaranteed to cure all the above complaints. It searches out the very roots of the diseases, driving out all the diseased fluids of the body, thus removing the cause and rendering the cure

Certain and Permanent.

This medicine allays pain and inflammation, which other remedies invariably cause, and can be taken with less trouble and expense to patients. This infallible remedy has saved thousands upon thousands from the hands of

Merciless Quacks,

(not from premature graves.) In cases of infection, the Compound Buchu is the only article worthy of the least confidence of the afflicted in performing

SAFE CURES.

It contains no narcotic, mercury, or other injurious drug, but is a purely VEGETABLE COMPOUND. It is very agreeable to the taste, creates no perceptible odor, and may be taken by persons of either sex without hindrance from business or medical advice, as plain directions for use accompany the medicine. Reader, if you have any of the above complaints, do not neglect them,

Delays are Dangerous.

With this medicine you can cure yourself, and thus prevent all exposure.

Truth must and will prevail.

This medicine speedily and effectually cures the most virulent form of secret diseases, and eradicates every particle of infectious matter from the patient to a perfect state of Health and Purity.—And as a medicine which must benefit everybody, from the simply delicate to the confined and despairing invalid, no equal is to be found, it acting both as a Cure and Preventive of any of the above ailments.

HELMBOLD'S
HIGHLY CONCENTRATED

Compound Fluid Extract Sarsaparilla,

—FOR—

Purifying the Blood, removing all diseases arising from Excess of Mercury, exposure and imprudence in life, chronic constitutional disease arising from an impure state of the Blood, and the only reliable and effectual known remedy for the cure of Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Scald head, Ulcerations of the Throat and Legs, Pains and Swellings of the Bones, Tetter, Pimples on the Face, and all scaly Eruptions of the Skin.

It is gratifying to the proprietor of these medicines to be able to state that it is now nearly three years since they were first introduced, during which time they have been extensively used in various parts of the United States, and have given to patient and practitioner the highest degree of satisfaction in the various cases in which they have been employed; whether in town, country, hospital, or private practice, they have invariably given the most decided and unequivocal satisfaction, and produced the most salutary and beneficial effects. Numerous letters have been received from the most distinguished physicians in the country, and from the professors of several medical colleges, recommending in the highest terms the value of these medicines and their superiority over all other preparations for such complaints as the proprietor recommends. Numerous preparations of Sarsaparilla and Bucha, and various modes of preparing them have been given, all of which of course will differ according to the mode of preparation which each individual may adopt.

These medicines require considerable care in the preparation, and the employment of different menstrua in successive operation to take up the extractive matters, and, in consequence, are most frequently improperly made, and not unfrequently much impaired, if not rendered totally inert, by the injudicious and unskillful management of those unacquainted with pharmaceutical preparations. It is, therefore, of the highest consideration and importance to the public, and to the faculty, that there should be standard preparations of uniform strength and possessing the most advantages. To affect this, and obviate the evil alluded to, I have made a number of experiments to ascertain the most effectual mode of extracting the virtues of the Sarsaparilla and the Buchu, and to discover the most eligible form for their exhibition. The experiments have resulted most favorably, and it is with much pleasure I now offer to the public and the faculty my Compound Fluid Extracts, which contain all the virtues of the articles they are represented to be made from in a highly concentrated form, and are the most active preparations which can be made. Two table spoonsful of the Extract Sarsaparilla added to a pint of water is equal to the Lisbon diet drink, and one bottle fully equals in strength one gallon of Syrup of Sarsaparilla or decoction, as usually made.

—PRICES—

Fluid Extract Bucha, $1 per bottle, or 6 for $5.
" " Sarsaparilla, " "

Certificates of cures and recommendations from distinguished professors and physicians, will accompany each preparation. Prepared and sold by

H. T. HELMBOLD,
Practical and Analytical Chemist,
No. 263 Chesnut-st., near the Girard House,
Philadelphia.

To be had of Druggists and dealers in every section of the United States and Canada.
